

Energy Technician Job Description:

The Energy Technician is responsible for working with Gas and Electric Service; e.g.: turn-on and shut-off services, meter work, gas and electrical emergencies. Energy Technicians are considered essential personnel and are required to respond to emergencies and work under all types of weather conditions.

MAJOR ACCOUNTABILITIES: Gas odor response, Mechanical Pipe fitting on Customer meter sets, Repair Single secondary outages on the PECO Electric distribution system, trouble shoot and repair customer Electrical issues including voltage irregularities; and gas and electric emergencies

POSITION REQUIREMENTS:

Minimum Required:

- Able to successfully complete required EEI testing.
- Valid driver's license and ability to receive and maintain CDL medical certificate
- High School Diploma or equivalent is required
- Must be able to lift 85 pounds.
- Ability to respond to emergency call out as essential personnel and to work shifts
- Ability to work in stressful environments involving gas or electric emergencies.
- Ability to interact with customers on a one on one basis and portray PECO as the energy supplier of choice
- Willing to report to any location throughout the PECO territory (Bucks, Montgomery, Delaware, Chester, and Philadelphia).
- Must be within the manufacturer's safe weight guidelines for equipment
- Excellent written and oral communications
- Independent ability to mechanically troubleshoot issues
- Comfortable working at heights
- Ability to work 24x7 shifts during storms or other energy delivery emergencies

Preferred:

Previous electric and/or gas work

- Mechanical experience with hand tools
- Heating, Ventilating and Air Conditioning (HVAC) experience
- Mechanical Iron pipe fitting